Listen to God’s Love Song

Listen to God’s love song: “See my vineyard fair,
  planted, walled and watered,
  pruned with loving care;
  ready to yield
  on every fruiting vine
  grapes of love and justice for my finest wine!”

“But what if my vineyard,
  breaking love and trust,
gives me only wild grapes,
  bitter and unjust?
  Then with an axe
  my sorrow shall be shown.
  I will leave it fenceless, trampled, overgrown!”

We ourselves are branches
  fed by Christ, the Vine, joined through one another
  as we intertwine,
  watching in awe
  our Grower stoop and stand,
  tying, training, musing,
  pruning-knife in hand.

Money, fame or numbers –
  Every measure’s moot.
Ask the Grower’s question:
  “Are we bearing fruit,
  year after year,
  dear Christ, without a fuss,
  loving, loving, loving,
as you first loved us?”

    Poetic meter: 11.11.10,11.
Tune: NOEL NOUVELET (FRENCH CAROL) [Several hymnals including United Methodist Hymnal #311 and my hymn collection, “Love’s Open Door”- Hope Publishing Company 2009]

Copyright © 2008 by Hope Publishing Company, Carol Stream, IL 60188.

Isaiah 5:1-7; John 15: 1-12. For Owl Rock United Methodist Church, Atlanta, Homecoming Day, Sunday May 18th, 2008. Owl Rock United Methodist Church, Atlanta, may use these words gratis in its worship and programs provided the copyright notice is displayed.