I come with joy, a child of I come with Christ, tions far and As Christ breaks bread, and bids us
The Spirit of the risen
Together met, to together

God, forgiven, loved and near to find, as all are share, each proud division Christ, unseen, but ever bound, by all that God has

WORDS: Brian Wren, 1970.
MUSIC: American; harm. Annabel Morris Buchanan, 1938
† Notice how the hymn moves from "I" (st. 1–3) to "we" (st. 4–5). Consider singing the first four stanzas at the beginning of the Lord's Supper service, and stanza 5 at the end.
