While other shepherds fleece the flock
(Psalm 23)

Words: Brian Wren
Music: "Walker's passing"
by Laurence Wareing

1. While other shepherds fleece the flock or leave it, lost__ to
2. No lamb shall be devoured as prey at noon-time or__ by
3. Your table calls, from far and near the greatest and__ the 4. Die__ Good Shepherd God, through ev'ry shock, we can on you re-night__, for you conduct us, come what may, in pathways good__ and least__ Our enemies may watch and jeer but we shall gladly 5. In__ grassy__ fields we__ safely__ graze__ and right__ Through yales__ danger__ ous and__ dark__ your__ feast__ En__ joying__ ev'ry__ mortal__ breath__ we'll__ drink from flowing streams, protected by your sheep have safely trod, directed by your dwell in your Shalom, till at the moment watchful gaze from snares and crooked schemes, sheepdog's bark and by your gentle rod,

of our death your mercy calls us home.

Easter Day, 2011

Copyright 2011 Stainer & Bell. All rights reserved.